Order. No. 22-30 / 27-383 31/7/03

Government regret to observe that in several cases of offences under the Infant Marriages Prevention Regulation, reported from the Shimoga District, there has been very inordinate delay on the part of the local Police officers in taking action. Such delay, it is obvious, detracts from the deterrent effect of prosecutions, where they do not render it inadvisable to institute prosecutions altogether, and for this, if for no other, reason, the Inspector General

Order

Govt regret to observe that in several cases of offences under the Infant Marriage Prevention Regn., reported from the Shimoga Dt. there has been very inordinate delay on the part of the local Police Officers in taking action. Such delays, it is obvious, detract from the deterrent effect of prosecutions. Where they do not render it inadvisable to institute prosecutions altogether, and for this, in other cases, should the matter be decided, the I.G. will insist on such cases being dealt with promptly.
